Source: HELP Committee estimates, based on data from the National Association of Independent Colleges and Universities and the Congressional Budget Office. Aid increases include projected funding from Pell grant program and funding for Promise grant program provided in HEAA of 2007. Estimates based on proportion of Pell grant aid each state received in award year 2005-2006, the last year for which data is available. Also includes estimated aid increases from HEAA provisions that increase the income at which students are automatically eligible for the maximum Pell grant and expanding the income protection allowance for Pell grant eligibility purposes, also based on proportion of Pell grant aid each state received in the 2005-2006 award year. Estimates rounded to nearest $100,000. Data on the number of Pell recipients by state is from the 2005-2006 school year from the National Association of Independent Colleges and Universities
