

PROJECT 2025

EXPOSED

How Project 2025 will harm America's standing in the world:

The extreme Republican plan would harm America's standing in the world by ceding influence in international organizations to our adversaries, increasing instability around the world by cutting funding for key humanitarian and development programs, dismantling the Department of State civil service, and imposing conservative and exclusionary social policies into our foreign assistance programs.

- Increases global instability by slashing global humanitarian assistance funding. (pp. 187, 268- 26)
- Puts the US at a disadvantage globally by withdrawing from international organizations, ceding influence and power to Russia and China. (p. 191)
- Defunds and reorganizes independent U.S. Government media platforms and public broadcasting tools in an effort to promote partisan Republican messaging (pp.245-246)
- Cause irreparable damage to international climate mitigation efforts. (pp. 268- 269)
- Weakens diplomacy by restructuring the State Department and forcing out career diplomats, all to enact partisan Republican-led agendas while trading off cross-administration experts and civil servants. (p. 89)
- Disregards women's right to control their own fertility and plan for their family by imposing archaic Republican's values of hate and discrimination into foreign assistance programs. (pp.187, 190-191, 258-259, 260, 266)
