EXPOSED

How Project 2025 will harm middle class families:

The extreme Republican plan would raise taxes on middle class families and workers in order to cut taxes for corporations and the wealthy.

- Raises taxes on American middle-class families while cutting taxes for the nation's wealthiest. (p. 696)
- Increases the cost of health insurance for millions of American workers, by taxing worker benefits. (p. 697)
- Cuts corporate taxes and greenlights of the use of corporate tax loopholes and tax havens to allow the wealthy to avoid paying their fair share. (pp. 696, 698)
- Rewards companies engaging in stock buybacks, putting wealthy shareholders over workers. (p. 696)
- Protects corporations at the expense of middle-class families, suggesting a supermajority requirement in Congress to raise corporate taxes. (p. 698)
- Endorses a national sales tax that would increase costs for American consumers. (p. 698)
