

IN NORTH DAKOTA, THE TEACHERS AND FIRST RESPONDERS BACK TO WORK ACT WILL PROVIDE $59.9 MILLION IN FUNDS TO SUPPORT UP TO 1,000 EDUCATOR JOBS

The Teachers and First Responders Back to Work Act will save or create nearly 400,000 education jobs through critical investments in the education of our nation's children. Specifically, The Teachers and First Responders Back to Work Act will invest $30 billion to support state and local efforts to retain, rehire, and hire early childhood, elementary, and secondary educators. The Teachers and First Responders Back to Work Act will provide North Dakota with an additional $59.9 million in funds that will support 1,000 education jobs, provide a jolt to the state economy, and improve the quality of education. By asking millionaires to pay their fair share, The Teachers and First Responders Back to Work Act will grow the North Dakota economy without adding a dime to the deficit.

Democrats Helped North Dakota Avoid an Even Worse Situation, Preventing Potential Layoffs. Recognizing the financial difficulty that many state and local governments were experiencing, Democrats shepherded the bipartisan Education Jobs Act into law, thereby protecting 400 education jobs in North Dakota. Unfortunately, thousands of teacher jobs are still at stake today. U.S. Department of Education analysis, [8/6/10; National Education Association, 5/10]
